INTRODUCTION.

THE name of our Order is not calculated to recommend it. It is not, however, without significance; for Friendship, Love and Truth are not so generally found and cherished in society as not to be regarded, in some degree, peculiarities and eccentricities, when they are made, as with us, the basis of social intercourse, and set forth distinctly as the fundamental principles of human association. That FELLOWSHIP of which these are the links, and which is established for the express purpose of cultivating, strengthening, and exercising these cardinal virtues, is justly entitled to the appellation ODD. We might desire for our Order a more dignified and euphonious title, and one more worthy of its excellent objects; but we are not disposed to quarrel with the name, so long as we are sure that the principles it covers are generous, elevated, and pure. And we are confident that no man ever penetrated the veil on the outside of which that quaint motto is inscribed, without confessing that the reality is far better than the resemblance,—the image more noble than the superscription.

Odd Fellowship is an association for mutual relief,—a system of ASSURANCE against the evils which attach to poverty, misfortune, sickness, orphanage, widowhood, and death, so far as they may be lightened by heartfelt sympathy and pecuniary aid.

It aims also to cultivate and draw out the social feelings. A well-conducted Lodge is a beautiful school for the friendly sympathies of our nature; and not only so, but also a seminary of all the virtues which dignify a human being, which are taught as well by direct instructions and lessons as by significant symbols and mottoes.

Odd Fellowship recognizes and urges our obligations to God, to our fellow-beings, to our country, and to ourselves; and none can be a good and true Odd Fellow without being a better Christian, a better citizen, and a better man.

It is a SECRET association no further than has been esteemed necessary to give interest to its meetings, and to its regular and somewhat arduous work of benevolence; to promote entire confidence amongst its members, and to secure the benefit of its funds to those who have contributed to raise, and are worthy to enjoy them.

The association itself is praiseworthy, being founded upon the noblest principles, and aiming to accomplish excellent results. It possesses the elements of great good and usefulness. But, like all human institutions, its operation and its effects must depend upon the character and intentions of the men who conduct it. If its members are upright and honest-hearted; if they fling away the sin of AMBITION, both for themselves individually, and for the Order; if they will be content to enjoy themselves in their Lodges, and to do good out of them without courting notoriety; if they will be true to their obligations, and faithful to their work,—then ODD FELLOWSHIP will be as useful, as respectable, and as enduring as its best friends can desire, and even its unpromising name will at length become synonymous with brotherly love and virtue.

PETITION FOR THE CHARTER.

BOSTON, December, 1842.

AT a meeting holden in Charlestown, it was resolved that the following Petition for a Charte should be sent to the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.

CHARLESTOWN, December, 1842.

To the Most Worthy Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of the State of Massachusetts.

The undersigned, members of the Order, a part of whom are residents of Charlestown, respectfully represent that it has been thought expedient, and conducive to the best interest of the Order to establish a Subordinate Lodge of I. O. O. F., in this town. The undersigned, after due deliberation and reflection, have determined to associate themselves together for the purpose of forming said Lodge.

We therefore, respectfully pray the Most Worthy Grand Lodge to grant us a Charter, for a Subordinate Lodge, to be hailed BUNKER HILL LODGE, No. 14, of Charlestown.

(Signed:)

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

FOR the purpose of effecting uniformity in the administration of the privileges, honors, and benefits of the Order, the GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS ordains the following articles as the Constitution of the Subordinate Lodges within its jurisdiction.

ARTICLE I.

This Lodge shall be constituted by at least five members, including one qualified to preside at its meetings, and shall be hailed and entitled,— and shall possess the full powers and privileges of a Subordinate Lodge, holding a legal, unreclaimed, and valid charter, duly granted and formally presented by the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts.

ARTICLE II.

SESSIONS.

SECTION 1.—Regular Sessions.—This Lodge shall hold one regular session in each week, on such evenings and at such hours as may be specified in the By-Laws. The Lodge may open and close its sessions with prayer. All regular business shall be transacted in the Third degree.

SEC. 2.—Special Sessions.—Special sessions may be called by the Noble Grand, at his option; and he shall call such sessions on the written request of five or more members, at which no business shall be transacted, except that specified in the notice; and every member must be notified by either written or printed circulars.

SEC. 3.—Quorum.—Five members of this Lodge, including one qualified to preside, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. (Digest, 1626.)

SEC. 4.—Terms.—The terms, of twenty-six weeks each, shall commence on the first sessions in January and July only; and all terms shall end on the day the succeeding ones commence.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

SECTION 1.—Elective Officers.—The elective officers of this Lodge shall consist of a N. G., V. G., Secretary (and, if the By-Laws so provide, a Permanent Secretary, to serve twelve months), and a Treasurer, who shall serve a regular term each.

SEC. 2.—Appointed Officers.—The appointed officers shall consist of a W., C., O. G., I. G., R. S. N. G., L. S. N. G., R. S. V. G., L. S. V. G., and R. and L. S. S., who shall serve a regular term each; and the N. G. may appoint, at his option, a Chaplain, or Chaplains, for a similar term.

SEC. 3.—Qualification for Office.—Brothers to be eligible to the office of N. G. must have served a regular term as V. G., and to be eligible to the office of V. G., must have served at least one term in some inferior office. All officers must have received the Third degree, and the N. G. and V. G. must have received the Degree of Rebekah.

SEC. 4.—Nomination of Officers.—Nominations for the elective offices, may be made at either of the two meetings immediately preceding that of the elections.

SEC. 5.—Election of Officers.—The elective officers of this Lodge shall be chosen separately, by a majority of written or printed ballots, at the last regular session in each term. Should no candidate receive a majority of the votes cast, the balloting shall be continued, and any qualified member who may receive a majority of the ballots shall be entitled to the office to which he is elected, whether previously nominated or not; and all ballots, including blanks, shall be counted.

Vancancies may be filled, at any regular session, by the election of duly qualified brothers, as provided in Section 3 of this Article; and officers so elected, and serving the residue of the term, shall be entitled to the full honors of the office to which they were elected.

SEC. 6.—Installation.—The installation of the officers shall take place at the first regular session in each term, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

SEC. 7.—Absence or Resignation of Officers. — Any officer absenting himself for three successive meetings, shall thereby forfeit his office; and the Lodge by a two-thirds vote, may declare his chair vacant. It is hereby expressly provided that officers must serve a majority of the nights of the term, unless prevented by sickness, except when elected to fill a vacancy, to entitle them to the honors of such term; and should an officer resign at any time during the term for which he was installed, he shall not be entitled to the honors thereof. Any officer may, after impeachment and trial, be removed from his office for incompetency or official misconduct. (Digest, 1360.)

ARTICLE IV.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1.—Duties of Noble Grand.—It shall be the duty of the N. G. to preside in the Lodge, and enforce a due observance of the Constitution and Laws, and a proper respect for the Grand Lodge of the State of Massachusetts; to see that all officers of the Lodge, and members of committees, perform their respective duties, as enjoined by the several charges and these laws; to appoint all officers and committees not otherwise provided for; to give the casting vote on all matters or questions before the Lodge, but in the election of officers and members, he shall be entitled to vote; to inspect and announce the result of all ballotings or other votes; to have charge of the charter, which he must always have in the Lodge while in session; to draw upon the Treasurer for all sums that have been voted by the Lodge, or that may be necessary to pay the benefits provided for by the By-Laws; and to perform such other duties as appertain to his office. He shall not make or second any motion, neither shall he take part in any debate, while in the chair.

SEC. 2.—Duties of Vice Grand.—The V. G. shall assist the N. G. in presiding in the Lodge; he shall appoint his own Supporters, and have special charge of the door, under the N. G. In case of the absence of the N. G., he shall preside, and perform all other duties required by the charges and usages of the Order.

SEC. 3.—Duties of the Secretary.—The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the Lodge proceedings; he shall write all communications, fill up all certificates and cards granted by the Lodge, issue all summonses, or notices required, attest to all moneys ordered to be paid at regular meetings, and none other; he shall, within four weeks, notify the Scribe of any Encampment to which a member of the Lodge may belong, of the granting of a withdrawal card or dismissal certificate, or of the suspension, expulsion, or reinstatement of any such member. (Digest, 1380.)

SEC. 4.—Duties of Permanent Secretary.—It shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to keep just and true accounts between the Lodge and its members, enter all charges as they become due, and credit all amounts paid, giving his receipt for all moneys he may receive, and immediately pay the same to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor; he shall report to the N. G. the names of all members who are one year in arrears, and, at the close of each term, make out for the Grand Lodge, a full return of the condition of the Lodge; he shall, at the close of the term, submit a statement of all moneys received and paid by him to the Treasurer, and deliver to his successor in office, or to any committee the Lodge may appoint, all books, papers, or other property appertaining to the office, in his possession. In case no Permanent Secretary is elected and installed, the Secretary shall perform the duties specified or implied in this section. (Proceedings 1877, 7461-2.)

SEC. 5.—Duties of Treasurer.—The Treasurer shall receipt for all moneys paid to him as Lodge funds, keep a full and correct account of the receipts and expenditures, and shall limit his surplus funds to such amount as the By-Laws may specify, by paying the excess to such Trustees as the Lodge may elect; he shall pay all orders drawn on him by the N. G., attested by the Secretary, for such benefits as the By-Laws may provide, and such bills as may be approved by the Finance Committee and ordered paid by the Lodge, and, at the last meeting in the term (or oftener if the By-Laws so provide), submit a detailed report of his receipts and expenditures, and have his books written up for examination by the Finance Committee prior to the commencement of the succeeding term. He shall deliver all moneys, books, papers, etc., in his possession, belonging to the Lodge, to his successor in office, or to any committee whom the Lodge may specially authorize to receive them.

SEC. 6.—Duties of the Warden.—The Warden shall superintend the ballotings, and shall canvass all votes on motions and resolutions, when required by the N. G. so to do; he shall be the messenger of the Lodge; he shall have charge of the regalia; and shall perform such other duties as are prescribed in the charge of his office.

SEC. 7.—The Conductor and other appointed Officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed for them by the general regulations and the charge of their respective offices.

ARTICLE V.

REPRESENTATIVES.

SECTION 1.—All Past Grands in good standing in this Lodge are entitled to seats in the R. W. Grand Lodge, but are not privileged to take part in the proceedings except to vote for the election of Grand Officers, unless duly elected Representatives.

SEC. 2.—This Lodge may, at the last meeting in June, annually, elect by ballot, from among its Past Grands in good standing, such of them as the Lodge may deem proper, to serve as Representatives for one year, commencing the first Thursday of the ensuing August, and this Lodge may at any time elect from among its qualified members such additional Representatives as it may be entitled to, to serve until the next annual election.

ARTICLE VI.

TRUSTEES.

SECTION 1.—At the last regular session in December of each year, there shall be elected, by a majority vote, three or more members of this Lodge, who shall be denominated, "Trustees of the Funds of BUNKER HILL LODGE, No. 14, I. O. O. F.," who shall hold in trust all its funds, stocks, and securities. They shall deposit, exchange, or transfer the same, or any part thereof, when required so to do by a two-thirds vote of the Lodge. Said Trustees shall deposit in some reliable trust or banking company, or invest in such manner as the Lodge may direct, all moneys they may receive from the Treasurer, or otherwise, belonging to the Lodge; and, whenever directed by a two-thirds vote, they shall withdraw so much of the amount so deposited, or invested, as may be expressed in the vote, and pay the same immediately to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. It is hereby made the duty of said Trustees, as soon as practicable after the deposit or investment of any funds, or the withdrawal of such deposits or investments of said funds, to render an account in writing, in order that the transaction may appear on the records; and they shall submit a detailed report of the financial condition of the Lodge at the close of each term. Either of said Trustees, for non-performance of duty or for misconduct, may, after due trial, be removed from his office by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting.

SEC. 2.—This Lodge may, if it shall so decide, elect its Trustees to serve for three years, so arranging that there shall be one of them elected each year.

ARTICLE VII.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1.—Qualification.—No person shall be entitled to membership in this Lodge except free white males, of good moral character, who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and who believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the universe. (Digest, 1093.)

Applicants must also have some respectable means of support, and be exempt from all infirmities which may prevent their gaining a livelihood.

The fee for admission, either by initiation or by deposit of card or dismissal certificate, must accompany the petition, and should the application be rejected, the amount shall be returned. The fee for initiation shall not be less than ten dollars.

SEC. 2.—Petitions.—Applications for membership in this Lodge, either by initiation, withdrawal card, or dismissal certificate, must be presented by a member, in writing, and, including the proposition and report of the Investigating Committee, shall be in the following form:

APPLICATION.

To the Officers and Members of .....Lodge, No ..
I. O. O. F.:

I, ..., approving the principles of your Order, and the provisions of your Constitution and By-Laws, have requested ..... to propose me as a candidate for admission into your Lodge; my age is .....years; occupation .....; place of residence, ...; my health is good. I have .... before applied for initiation in any Lodge of this Order.

For information in relation to my character, habits, etc., I refer you to ..... and .....

.....Candidate.

PROPOSITION.

Being personally acquainted with the above-named applicant, I hereby propose him for admission into this Lodge.

.....

REPORT.

.....18..

To the Officers and Members of .....Lodge, No...
I. O. O. F.:

The Committee to whom was referred the petition of .....to become a member of this Lodge, have attended to their duty, and recommend that he be.....admitted.

.....
} Investigating Committee.

Should the Committee be satisfied that there are "Constitutional" objections to the petitioner, they should state what they are in their report, after the word "admitted."

SEC. 3.—Investigation, Report, and Ballot.—The application shall be recorded, and then be referred to an Investigating Committee of three members of this Lodge, who shall inquire as to the health, character, and standing of the petitioner, with whom at least one of the Committee shall have a personal interview, and make a faithful report at the next regular meeting, unless, by request of the Committee, the Lodge shall grant further time.

When the report shall have been submitted to the Lodge, action shall be deferred until the next regular session, or, from time to time, until any question as to the fitness of the applicant may be determined. The candidate shall then be balloted for with ball ballots, and if not more than two black balls appear against him, he shall be elected; but if three or more black balls appear, he shall be rejected; and, in all cases, not less than a quorum of the Lodge must have voted to constitute a legal ballot. In balloting, the ballot box shall be placed on a stand, in the centre of the hall, in full view of the N. G.

SEC. 4.—Declaring a Ballot Void.—Should the Lodge elect a candidate to membership, and, prior to his admission, become satisfied that he is unworthy, it shall be competent for the Lodge to annul such election, and declare it void by a two-thirds vote of the members present, notice of such proposed action having been given one week previous, and the Lodge shall then proceed to a new ballot as provided in Section 3 of this Article. (Digest, 131-2.)

SEC. 5—Reconsideration of Ballot.—A reconsideration of a ballot is inadmissible, except when all the brothers who may have cast black balls against an applicant for membership, voluntarily make a motion for a reconsideration of the ballot, and, in such case, the vote on the reconsideration shall be by ball ballots; and if all the votes be favorable, the reconsideration shall be had.

The application shall then lie upon the table until the next regular meeting, when another ballot shall be had with ball ballots; and if the same be unanimously in favor of the applicant, he shall thereby be elected; but if one or more black balls appear in either ballot the application shall be rejected; and in no instance shall more than one reconsideration in the same case be allowed; and, provided always, that such reconsideration shall be had within the four meeting nights next succeeding the rejection. (Digest, 129.)

SEC. 6.—Application by Withdrawal Card.—A brother of the Order, holding a withdrawal card from any Lodge, and desiring to become a member, shall present a petition therefor, as provided for other applicants by Section 2 of this Article, which shall be disposed of in the manner specified in Section 3 of this Article. A fee of not less than four dollars, and in addition not less than two dollars for each degree he may have attained, must accompany the application; provided, however, that if the card was taken from this Lodge, he may be admitted for such sum, not less than two dollars, as the By-Laws may provide. (Digest, 1201-2.)

An Ancient Odd Fellow, or one whose withdrawal card is out of date, or which may have been lost, may be admitted in the manner provided for other applicants, and for a fee of not less than four dollars; and not less than two dollars, in addition, for each degree attained.

SEC. 7.—Application by Dismissal Certificate.—Applications for membership by the deposit of a dismissal certificate, may be received, provided such certificate was not granted by this Lodge, and shall be subject to the same conditions as are provided in the previous Section, for applications by withdrawal card.

SEC. 8.—Non-Residents.—No person residing in any other town or city, where a Lodge or Lodges exist, shall be initiated in this Lodge without an official permit from a Lodge in the town or city where he resides, or from the Board of Grand Officers.

SEC. 9.—Notice of Rejection,—When a candidate has been rejected for immoral conduct, impaired health, or other Constitutional reasons duly specified and recorded, notice thereof shall be sent, without delay, to all the Lodges in the same county, and within ten miles of this Lodge; and a person so rejected, shall not be again balloted for in this or any other Lodge for six months thereafter.

SEC. 10.—Reinstatement within one year.—Any member of this Lodge who may have been suspended for non-payment of dues, may, within one year after suspension, be reinstated on paying the amount of one year's dues, and complying with the provisions of Section 2 of this Article, prescribed for other applicants. The application shall be disposed of as expressed in Section 3 of this Article, except that a majority only of ball ballots, in his favor, shall be required to reinstate him.

SEC. 11.—Reinstatement after one year.—After one year from the date of suspension, a member of this Lodge, suspended for non-payment of dues, may be reinstated upon the payment of the fee charged for an initiate of the same age, as prescribed by the By-Laws, provided that such sum shall not be less than the amount of one year's dues.

Applications, accompanied with the requisite fee, must be made in the form prescribed for other applicants, and shall be disposed of as provided in Section 3 of this Article.

Should an application for reinstatement, under this or any other Section or Article in this Constitution, be rejected, the funds paid in by the applicant, on his petition, shall be returned to him, although he may be indebted to the Lodge in that amount. (Digest, 1069, 1070, 1689.)

SEC. 12.—Reinstatement of Expelled Members.—A member who has been expelled, and desires to be reinstated, shall present his petition therefor, as provided in Section 2 of this Article, which shall be referred to a committee of three, as in the case of other applicants, who shall inform themselves as to the present character and circumstances of the applicant, and report as soon as practicable. On the reception of the report, a ball ballot shall be had on the question, "Shall application be made to the Grand Lodge for permission to reinstate the applicant." And if two-thirds of the ballots be in the affirmative, such application shall be made. At the next regular meeting after the receipt of permission from the Grand Lodge to reinstate the brother, a ballot shall be taken on the application for reinstatement; and if not more than two black balls appear against him, the brother shall be reinstated.

SEC. 13.—Withdrawing Application.—An application for membership may be withdrawn, without the permission of the Lodge, before the report of the Committee thereon is read to the Lodge, but not afterward. (Digest, 1130, a.)

SEC. 14.—Non-Appearance of Applicant.—A candidate failing to present himself for initiation or membership for three months after being notified, said election shall be null and void, unless by unanimous vote the Lodge shall determine otherwise.

SEC. 15.—Commencement of Membership.—Membership in this Lodge shall commence when the applicant signs the Constitution.

ARTICLE VIII.

DEGREES.

SECTION 1.—Eligibility.—Brothers who have been in membership one week shall be eligible for degrees; but not more than two degrees shall be conferred on a brother at the same meeting, except in cases of urgent necessity, nor then without a written dispensation from the Grand Master or the District Deputy Grand Master.

SEC. 2.—Fee.—The fee for degrees in this Lodge shall not be less than three dollars each.

SEC. 3.—Application and Ballot.—Application for degrees shall be made in the Lodge when open in the Third Degree; and shall be balloted for in the same manner as prescribed for membership, and on the same evening when application is made.

ARTICLE IX.

DUES.

SECTION 1.—Dues.—The regular dues to this Lodge shall not be at a less rate than four dollars per year; the amount to be specified in the By-Laws.

SEC. 2.—Penalty for Non-payment.—Any member of this Lodge who is in arrears for weekly or funeral dues more than thirteen weeks, is not entitled to the term pass-word, or to vote in the Lodge, but is a contributing member until suspended or expelled, and shall be entitled to visit his own Lodge. He shall not, however, be entitled to benefits until he shall have paid in full all dues and fines, weekly and funeral, that have accrued against him, up to the date of payment, if the By-Laws of the Lodge shall so provide; nor then, until the expiration of such time thereafter, as may also by the laws be provided as a penalty. The Lodge shall not refuse to receive in full, or in part, the dues of a member prior to his suspension, and no member shall be suspended for non-payment of dues, unless, at the time of his suspension, he shall be indebted to the Lodge for one year's dues; but when a member shall be liable to suspension by being in arrears for dues for the space of one year, he shall be notified at least four weeks previous to action being taken, of his indebtedness and the pendency of such action, and the Secretary shall, on the expiration of the notice, and the arrearages being still unpaid, report the same to the Noble Grand in open Lodge; and, unless the Lodge shall otherwise determine, such member shall be suspended by a majority ballot, and a record thereof shall be made upon the minutes. The ballot whereby a member has been suspended for non-payment of dues shall not be reconsidered. (Proceedings, 1877; pages 7461-2.)

ARTICLE X.

BENEFITS.

SECTION 1.—Weekly Benefits.—This Lodge shall pay benefits to any of its members who, in consequence of sickness or accident, not the result of their own immoral conduct, and who are not indebted to the Lodge for the amount of more than thirteen weeks' dues, nor otherwise disqualified from receiving the same, in such amount per week as may be fixed in the By-Laws. (Digest, 152, 154.)

SEC. 2.—Funeral Expenses.—In case of the death of a member of this Lodge, qualified as provided in Section 1 of this Article, there shall be paid from the funds of the Lodge, such a sum not less than thirty dollars, as may be specified in the By-Laws, which shall be used for defraying the funeral expenses; or if said expenses shall be paid by any relative or friend of the deceased, then the said amount shall be paid to such relative or friend.

ARTICLE XI.

CARDS.

SECTION 1.—Visiting Cards.—Any member of this Lodge, on making application for a visiting card, either personally or otherwise, shall be entitled to the same, if no objections be made, otherwise by a majority vote, and paying his dues up to the time for which it is granted, including such fee for the card as may be specified in the By-Laws.

SEC. 2.—Withdrawal Cards.—Any member of this Lodge desiring a withdrawal card, shall make application therefor either personally or in writing; and if free from all charges, and not indebted to the Lodge, the Lodge shall, on the same evening when such card is applied for, proceed to vote on the application by ball ballot; and if a majority of the ballots be favorable, or white, the card shall be granted. (Digest, 243.)

The vote granting a withdrawal card, shall neither be reconsidered nor rescinded. (Digest, 244, 1918.)

SEC. 3.—Reinstatement for Withdrawal Card.—A member of this Lodge who has been suspended for non-payment of dues, and who shall make application for reinstatement and a withdrawal card, may be reinstated and granted a final card at any time within five years from the date of suspension, upon the payment of one year's dues, and the usual price of the card. Should the Lodge refuse to reinstate the applicant, he shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall, upon proper application, grant a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

SEC. 4.—Dismissal Certificates.—A member of this Lodge suspended for non-payment of dues, after five years' suspension, wishing to join a Lodge in this jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall grant, upon proper application, a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

A member of this Lodge who may be suspended for non-payment of dues, and desires to regain membership in another jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall, upon proper application, grant a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

Dismissal certificates may be received on application for membership in any Lodge excepting that granting the same; but the privilege of visiting a lodge on a dismissal certificate is hereby denied. (Digest, 316.)

ARTICLE XII.

PENALTIES AND TRIAL.

SECTION 1.—Any member who shall violate any of the principles of the Order, or offend against these Articles or the By-Laws, shall be subject to be fined, reprimanded, suspended, or expelled, as the By-Laws may direct, or the Lodge determine. But no member shall be liable to more than one of the penalties named in this Section.

SEC. 2.—Every member shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offence involving either of the penalties named in Section 1 of this Article; but shall not be put on trial unless charges, duly specifying his offence, be submitted to the Lodge, in writing, by one or more brothers of the Order.

SEC. 3.—When charges have been preferred against a brother in proper manner, they shall be referred to a special committee of five members, who shall, if possible, be chosen from among the peers of the implicated brother; and they shall, with as little delay as the case will admit, summon the parties, and examine the matter in question. Should the committee be satisfied that the charge is sustained, they shall, with their report, submit a motion to the Lodge for the infliction of such penalty as, in their judgment, the offence demands; and if not involving suspension or expulsion, the adoption of the report shall be final, unless an appeal be taken.

SEC. 4.—When a motion for the suspension or expulsion of a brother shall have been submitted in due form, it shall be the special order of business for the second regular session thereafter; and the accused shall be summoned to be in attendance at the Lodge on the time when it may have been determined to consider the question; at which time, whether the implicated brother be present or not, the Lodge may proceed to consider and determine it. Two-thirds of the members present voting in favor of the motion by ball ballot, it shall be carried; and the Lodge shall be fully competent, while such motion is under consideration, to vary the penalty from the original motion.

SEC. 5.—When the decision of a committee appointed under Section 3 shall not be satisfactory to all parties, either of those interested shall have the privilege of appeal to the Lodge; and, at the time appointed for trying the appeal, the committee shall present to the Lodge, in writing, the grounds on which their decision was founded, and the parties shall have the privilege of being heard before the Lodge; and the Lodge shall determine the correctness of the decision of the committee by a majority of the votes present, and any brother shall be entitled to appeal from the decision of the Lodge against him, in accordance with the provisions of Article XIII, provided informality or want of fairness be shown on the former trial; and, on the command of the Grand Lodge, the brother may be tried anew for the same offence.

SEC. 6.—Any brother having been suspended or expelled, notice thereof shall be sent to the Grand Secretary; and a brother who has been legally expelled, shall not be again admitted to membership without the consent of the Grand Lodge.

SEC. 7.—Any member of the Order who shall have painted upon his sign any of the emblems of the Order, or who shall otherwise exhibit them on the same, or have them printed or engraved upon his business card, or expose them in any public place as a sign, may be admonished, suspended, or expelled, agreeably to a vote of the Lodge.—(Digest, 588.)

ARTICLE XIII.

APPEALS.

SECTION 1.—At the meeting when the Lodge shall have determined any question before it, or shall have taken final action after the trial of a brother, and such brother intends to appeal, he shall give written notice to the Lodge over his own, or his attorney's signature, and in such notice, shall specify whether he will appeal to the Worthy District Deputy Grand Master, to the Most Worthy Grand Master, or to the Right Worthy

Grand Lodge, which notice shall be entered upon the records of the Lodge, and then be placed on file.

SEC. 2.—The appellant shall, at the same or the next meeting thereafter, present a written statement of the grounds upon which he makes his appeal, which statement shall be signed by him, or his attorney, and the statement shall also be recorded by the Secretary, and be placed on file.

It shall then be the duty of the Noble Grand and Secretary to immediately prepare and forward to the party to whom the appeal is taken, a copy of the appeal, and, also, a copy of the records applicable to the case, authentiated by their signatures and the seal of the Lodge.

ARTICLE XIV.

RETURNS AND FORFEITURE OF CHARTER.

SECTION 1.—Returns.—It shall be the duty of the officers to prepare and forward to the Grand Lodge, previous to the installation of their successors, a report of the work for the term, in accordance with the blanks furnished by the Grand Lodge, and authenticate the same by their signatures and the seal of the Lodge. Refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section before the 20th of January and July, of each year, will subject the Lodge to a fine of five dollars.

SEC. 2.—Forfeiture of Charter.—Should this Lodge fail to make its returns, as required by Section 1 of this article, for twelve months, it shall thereby forfeit its charter and become extinct; and it shall become the duty of the last installed officers to transmit or surrender to the Grand Master (or such other brother as may be appointed by the Grand Lodge to receive them), the charter, books, papers, furniture, property, and funds of the Lodge.

ARTICLE XV.

FINANCES.

SECTION 1.—Funds and Property not to be divided.—The funds, property, and income of this Lodge having been raised for the purpose of relieving sick and distressed brethren, and other charitable uses in the Order, are not to be divided in any manner, among the members, but shall remain for its legitimate purposes the property of the Lodge, so long as its charter is unclaimed, and five brothers remain in good standing in the Lodge.

SEC. 2.—Funds not to be misappropriated.—This Lodge shall not appropriate any of its funds for the payment, wholly or in part, of the expenses of any parade, entertainment, excursion, ball, picnic, etc., nor for the hire of music on any occasion except the celebration of the anniversary of the Order on the 26th of April. The provisions of this section shall not be so construed as to prohibit the appropriation of money received from other than the usual and legitimate revenues of the Lodge, for any of the purposes named or implied therein, provided such money has not been previously paid into the treasury as Lodge funds. (Digest, 106.)

ARTICLE XVI.

INTERPRETATION, AMENDMENT, AND BY-LAWS.

SECTION 1.—Interpretation.—When doubts arise as to the meaning of any part of these Articles, they shall be determined by the Grand Lodge.

SEC. 2.—Amendment.—Neither these Articles, nor any part thereof, shall be altered, amended, or annulled, except the proposed amendment be submitted to the Grand Lodge at a session prior to action being taken, or by presentation to the Board of Grand Officers, in writing, at least three months before the session at which it is to be acted upon; in which case the same shall be presented to every Subordinate Lodge, by circular, at least thirty days before the meeting of the grand Lodge.

SEC. 3.—By-Laws.—This Lodge shall stand fully invested with power to adopt such By-Laws, resolutions, and rules of order, from time to time, as may be deemed expedient, provided they do not in anywise conflict with any part of these Articles, the Constitution and By-Laws of the Grand Lodge, or the principles of the Order. On the adoption of any By-Law, or amendment to a By-Law, duplicate copies, properly authenticated by the seal of the Lodge, and attested by the Secretary, shall be forwarded to the Grand Secretary for examination by the Committee on Laws, and shall not be in force unless approved by said Committee; nor shall any By-Law, or amendment thereof, be adopted unless the same has been submitted to the Lodge, in writing, at a regular meeting previous to action being taken. It shall be lawful, when a proposed amendment to the By-Laws which has been regularly submitted, to amend the same, while under consideration, in any manner the Lodge may determine, not in violation of this Constitution or the laws of the Grand Lodge of the United States. (Proceedings G. L. U. S., 1877, p. 7419.)

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

SESSIONS.

THE regular session of this Lodge shall be held on Monday evening of each week:—on and after April 1st to October 1st at eight o'clock; on and after October 1st to April 1st at 7½ o'clock.

ARTICLE II.

COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1.—Finance Committee.—The Noble Grand shall immediately after installation appoint a Committee on Finance, to consist of three members, who shall examine and certify to the correctness of all claims against the Lodge previous to payment. They shall audit the accounts of the Trustees, Treasurer and Permanent Secretary at the close of each term, and shall have access to their books for that purpose at reasonable times, but shall not be privileged to remove such books from the custody of such officers unless by vote of the Lodge.

The Finance Committee shall exercise a general supervision of the financial affairs of the Lodge and shall submit a detailed report in writing at the close of the term for which they were appointed, or previous to the installation of officers for the succeeding term.

SEC. 2.—Visiting Committee.—The Noble Grand, Vice Grand, Treasurer, and four members shall be a Standing Committee on visitation and relief, whose duty it shall be to visit all sick or disabled brothers who may be reported to this Lodge (excepting those who reside at an inconvenient distance), have such attention paid them as may be required and report the condition of such brothers to the Lodge as long as they may require assistance; and when their circumstances require it the Noble Grand may draw upon the Treasurer for a sum not to exceed five dollars, as a donation. It shall be the duty of the Noble Grand to so arrange that sick brothers shall be visited at least once a day during their illness, and, if necessary, provide experienced watchers to attend such sick brothers during the day or night at an expense not exceeding two dollars for each twenty-four hours unless otherwise ordered by the Lodge.

SEC. 3.—Hall Committee.—At the first session in March there shall be elected by a majority of votes one member of this Lodge, who shall also be a member of the Encampment, to serve as a member of the Hall Committee for one year from the 1st of April, whose duty it shall be to act in conjunction with the Hall Committees of the other Lodges or Encampments using property in common with this Lodge, and have a general supervision of the rooms, furniture, fixtures, etc., of the Lodge, and at the commencement of each quarter make a detailed report in writing to the Lodge of the total expenditures incurred during the quarter last past, with such other statements as he may deem of interest to the Lodge.

SEC. 4.—Committee of Inquiry.—Every brother shall have it incumbent upon him to report to the Noble Grand any case of an erring brother that may come to his knowledge, without giving publicity to it, in or out of the Lodge. When information of the departure of any brother from the path of rectitude required by the principles of the Order shall come to the notice of the Noble Grand a committee of three, to be styled a Committee of Inquiry, shall be privately appointed by him to remonstrate with such brother, in order to restore him to his former position. Such committee to report privately to the Noble Grand.

SEC. 5.—Reception Committee.—The Noble Grand shall, on the night of his installation, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, appoint two members who, with the Junior Past Grand, shall be known as the Reception Committee, whose duty it shall be to make the acquaintance of all brothers visiting the Lodge, to introduce them to our officers and members, to give them such information in regard to the Order in this district and vicinity as they may desire and extend to them proper courtesy and civility.

SEC. 6.—Committee on Correspondence.—At the first regular session in each term, the Noble Grand shall appoint a committee of three, of which the Secretary shall be chairman ex officio, as a Committee on Correspondence, whose duty shall be to correspond as soon as practicable with all members of this Lodge residing out of the State, giving them a statement of such matters connected with the Lodge as may appear to be of interest.

SEC. 7.—Special Committees.—Special committees for specific purposes may be created at any regular session, either by appointment or resolution. The final report of such committees, where an expenditure of funds shall be required, shall be made in writing.

SEC. 8.—The Vice Grand shall appoint the minority of all investigating committees, and such committees may, if they deem advisable, cause the candidate to be examined by a regular physician, the expense of such examination to be paid by the Lodge.

SEC. 9.—Every member of an investigating committee shall, in addition to the requirements of Sec. 3, Article VII. of the Constitution, make a verbal report of their investigations, unless excused by the Lodge.

SEC. 10.—Should a vacancy occur in any committee it shall be filled at the same or next regular session.

ARTICLE III.

DUES AND FEES.

SECTION. 1.—Dues.—The dues to this Lodge shall be one dollar and twenty-five cents per quarter,—quarters commencing January 1st, April 1st, July 1st, and October 1st; and all dues must be paid within thirteen weeks from the commencement of the quarter. Members initiated the first half of the quarter shall pay the whole amount. Those initiated the last half shall pay one-half the amount.

SEC. 2.—Fees.—The fee for initiation into this Lodge shall be fifteen dollars for any person under the age of forty-five. From the age of forty-five to fifty, inclusive, the candidate shall pay one dollar additional for each year; above the age of fifty, two dollars additional for each year.

SEC. 3.—A brother admitted to membership by deposit of card, dismissal certificate, or as an Ancient Odd Fellow, shall pay fifteen dollars (except brothers who were former members of this Lodge who shall pay two dollars), and in addition, if he has attained to the First degree two dollars, if to the Second degree four dollars, and if to the Third degree six dollars (provided the degrees were not conferred by this Lodge).

SEC. 4.—The fee for a Visiting Card shall be twenty-five cents. Any member paying his dues one year in advance, shall, upon application, be entitled to a card free.

SEC. 5.—The fee for each degree shall be five dollars.

ARTICLE IV.

SEC. 1. Every member of the Lodge not disqualified by Article 10, Section 1, of the Constitution, if unable to attend to his usual occupation by reason of sickness or other disability, shall, after the first week of such sickness or disability, be entitled to receive from the funds of this Lodge, for each year of such sickness or disability, provided he has attained to the Third degree—for the first twenty-six weeks, five dollars per week, and one dollar per week for the balance of the year.

A member who has not attained to the Third degree, and not disqualified by Article X., Section 1, of the Constitution, shall, after the first week of his sickness or disability, be entitled to receive from the funds of this Lodge, for each year of such sickness or disability—for the first twenty-six weeks, two dollars and fifty cents per week, and fifty cents per week for the balance of the year, and no member shall receive any benefits for more than two weeks prior to his being reported to the Lodge.

A member residing at a distance shall be considered to be reported to the Lodge on the day upon which the letter notifying the Lodge of his sickness shall have been mailed.

No member shall receive more than one hundred and fifty-six dollars in any one year.

No member who has not attained to the Third degree shall receive more than seventy-eight dollars for any one year.

SEC. 2. On the death of a member who is not disqualified by Section 1, Article X. of the Constitution, the sum of fifty dollars shall be allowed as a funeral benefit, which shall be disposed of as provided for by Section 2, Article X. of the Constitution.

The Secretary shall notify the members of the Lodge, as far as practicable, of the death of a member in such manner as may be directed by the Noble Grand, in order that they may attend the funeral.

SEC. 3. Residence at a distance from the location of the Lodge shall not disqualify a member from receiving benefits. It will be necessary for a member so circumstanced to send to the Lodge a true statement of his case, attested by the Secretary, and under the Seal of the Lodge nearest to the place where he may be; or if no Lodge be near, his case, complaint and circumstances shall be certified to by a justice of the peace or a regular physician.

SEC. 4. A member of another Lodge applying to this Lodge for relief, and becoming beneficiary, shall be entitled to full sympathy and such assistance as may be requested by the Lodge of which he is a member, or in such amount as his card, if he has one, may specify.

ARTICLE V.

FINANCES.

SECTION 1. The Treasurer shall pay to the Trustees all moneys in his possession belonging to the Lodge in excess of the amount required to defray the necessary expenses of the Lodge.

SEC. 2. No donation shall be made from the funds of the Lodge without the consent of three-fourths of the members present at a regular session; nor then unless such donation shall be applied strictly within the limits of well-deserved charity.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall, in addition to the duties prescribed by Article IV., Section 3, of the Constitution, keep the statistical records of the Lodge in an accurate manner, for the faithful performance of all which he shall receive from the funds of the Lodge the sum of twenty-six dollars per term.

SEC. 4. At the last regular session in December there shall be elected one member of the Lodge, to serve as Permanent Secretary for one year, whose duties shall be as prescribed in Section 4, Article IV. of the Constitution. He shall receive from the funds of the Lodge for such services fifty-two dollars per annum, payable semi-annually.

SEC. 5. The Permanent Secretary shall, four weeks after the expiration of each quarter, notify any member who is in arrears of the amount due the Lodge, adding ten cents for such notice.

ARTICLE VI.

FINES AND PENALTIES.

SECTION 1. Members failing to notify the Secretary of a change of residence, either personally or in writing, within two weeks of removal, shall be fined fifty cents.

SEC. 2. All official notices of the Lodge to its members shall be deemed legally served when the same shall have been deposited in the post-office directed to the residence of said member as recorded in the Secretary's book.

SEC. 3. If any member make public the doings of the Lodge, or expose the name of a member who shall speak or vote against a candidate for membership, he shall be liable to suspension or expulsion.

SEC. 4. Any member allowing himself to become in arrears shall not be entitled to receive benefits until four weeks after he has paid all arrearages.

ARTICLE VII.

NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS.

SECTION 1.—In the nomination for officers, each member shall deposit a ballot with the name of the member he prefers for the various offices, and the three members receiving the highest number of ballots for each office, shall be the candidates.

SEC. 2.—At the election the Secretary shall provide written or printed ballots for each candidate, and all the ballots are to be counted in conformity with Section 5, Article III. of the Constitution.

ARTICLE VIII.

TRUSTEES.

SECTION 1.—The Trustees shall deposit the funds of the Lodge in their several names as Trustees of Bunker Hill Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F. The order for the withdrawal of any invested funds shall be signed by the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary, and indorsed by a majority of the Trustees, with the seal of the Lodge affixed.

SEC. 2.—In case there should be any orphans or children of a deceased member, left in poverty, without a guardian, it shall be the duty of the Trustees to see that they are properly educated and placed in situations where they may be employed in gaining a livelihood, and at the same time be preserved from vice and infamy; and, from time to time, to make proper inquiries into their situation, and report to the Lodge.

SEC. 3.—In case any widow of a deceased member of the Lodge shall be left in indigent circumstances, it shall be the duty of the Trustees to make inquiries into her condition, and report to the Lodge what assistance, if any, she may need, and the Lodge may vote to her such sums, from time to time, as they may deem expedient.

SEC. 4.—The Trustees shall visit the widow or children of a deceased member as soon as it is prudent after his burial, inquire into their circumstances, and report the same to the Lodge, and shall visit the widows and orphans who reside within five miles of the city as often as they deem expedient, and they shall keep a correct record of their names and residences.

ARTICLE IX.

AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1.—These By-Laws, or any part of them, may be altered, amended, or annulled at any regular session by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, provided a motion for that purpose shall have been made to the Lodge, in writing, at least two regular sessions previous, and entered on the minutes of such regular session.

The Lodge shall be fully competent at the time of action to vary the motion from the original proposition.

SEC. 2.—The Lodge may adopt such Rules of Order as a majority shall concur in at a regular session, the same having been proposed in writing at a previous regular session, and amend, alter, or annul the same in like manner. A motion to suspend a Rule of Order for a particular occasion may be adopted at any time by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

RULES OF ORDER.

I.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. Opening the Lodge.
2. Admission of brothers whose visiting cards may be upon the table; and no other business shall be transacted until the visiting brothers shall be admitted to the Lodge.
3. The proceedings of the last meeting read by the Secretary, and, if no objection be made to any part thereof, they shall stand approved without a vote.
4. Calling the Roll of Officers.
5. Reports of Investigating Committees.
6. Applications for Membership or Degrees.
7. Balloting for Membership or Degrees.
8. Bills read and referred.
9. Sick brothers reported.
10. Report of Visiting Committee, or Committee on the Sick.
11. Initiation or Degree work.
12. Communications read and disposed of.
13. Report of Finance Committee.
14. Reports of Standing or Special Committees.

15. Unfinished Business.
16. New Business.
17. Good of the Order.
18. Closing of the Lodge.

The order of business, as arranged in the preceding rules, may, at any time, for an occasion, be suspended, changed, or dispensed with, by the N. G., if there are no objections; but, should objection arise, it shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting to make a change.

II.—OF DECORUM.

1.—During the continuance of the meeting, the most decorous silence must be observed, the officers and brothers retaining their seats, unless absolutely necessary to leave them; and no brother shall leave the room without the permission of the N. G., or enter without the permission of the V. G.

2.—Every elected officer and member shall be designated, in debate or otherwise, by his proper office or title according to his standing in the Lodge.

III.—OF THE CHAIR.

1.—The N. G., while presiding, shall state every question coming before the Lodge, and immediately before putting it to vote shall ask, "Is the Lodge ready for the question?" Should no member rise to speak, he shall proceed to put the question; and after he has risen no member shall be permitted to speak upon it. He shall announce the decision of the Lodge on all subjects.

2.—In case of an appeal from the decision of the N. G., the question shall be as follows: "Will the Lodge sustain the decision of the chair? which shall be decided without debate.

3.—Should two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the N. G. shall decide which is entitled to the floor.

4.—The N. G. shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points of order, rising from his seat for that purpose. He shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

IV.—OF DEBATE.

1.—Every member when he speaks or offers a motion, shall be standing, and shall respectfully address the Chair; and when he has finished, shall resume his seat. While speaking, he shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoid all personality and indecorous language, as well as any reflection upon the officers or members of the Lodge.

2.—No member shall be allowed to speak over fifteen minutes at a time, or more than twice upon the same subject, except permitted by the N. G.

3.—The N. G., or any member, may call a brother to order, while speaking, when the debate shall be suspended; and the brother shall not speak until the point of order be determined, unless to appeal from the decision of the Chair, when he may use the words following, and none other: "N. G., I respectfully appeal from the Chair to the Lodge."

4.—No member shall disturb another in his speech, unless to call him to order for words spoken.

5.—All resolutions offered by members shall be reduced to writing.

6.—No member shall be permitted to speak or vote on any question before the Lodge, unless clothed in the full regalia of his office or rank.

V.—OF QUESTIONS AND VOTES.

1.—When any communication, petition, or memorial is presented by a member of this Lodge, before it is read or any vote taken upon it, a brief statement of its contents shall be made by the introducer or the N. G.; and after it has been read, a brief notice of its purport shall be entered on the minutes.

2.—No motion shall be subject to action, until seconded, and stated by the Chair; at the desire of any brother, it shall be reduced to writing.

3.—After a motion is stated by the N. G., it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Lodge, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment.

4.—When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the highest sum or number, and the longest time proposed.

5.—Any member may call for the division of a question, when the sense will admit of it.

6.—When a question is before the Lodge, no motion shall be received, unless to close the Lodge; the previous question; to lay on the table; to postpone; to refer; or to amend; and these shall have precedence in the order herein arranged, and the first two shall be decided without debate.

7.—When a question has been decided by the Lodge, in which two-thirds of the members present are necessary to carry the affirmative, a motion for reconsideration shall be decided by a majority of votes.

8.—After a question has been decided, any two members who voted in the majority may, at the same or next meeting, move for a reconsideration thereof.

9.—The previous question can be called for by two members, and shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" If carried, the vote shall be taken first on any amendments that may be pending, and next on the final question.

10.—When one-fifth of the members rise, in favor of taking a question by yeas and nays, they shall be so recorded.

11.—All questions, unless otherwise fixed by law, shall be determined by a majority of votes.

12.—All questions of order, not provided for by these rules, must be determined by vote of the Lodge.

It is particularly enjoined, that members of this Lodge treat each other with due respect during the sittings; that all discussions be conducted in a spirit of candor, moderation, and open generosity, and that all personal allusions, and sarcastic language by which the feelings of a brother may be injured, be carefully avoided, that in concord and good fellowship we may cherish and preserve the most prominent objects of our Order—Friendship, Charity, and Harmony.
